A Holy Week Performance on Christ's Passion Story

First Lutheran Church Presents “The Seven Last Words of Christ” by Theodore Dubois: A Musical Journey

First Lutheran Church invites the community to experience the gripping story of Christ’s Passion Story through music at their performance of The Dubois Cantata on Wednesday, March 27 at 7 p.m. This choral and orchestral work tells the story of Christ’s Seven Last Words, based on music composed by Theodore Dubois. A First Lutheran tradition for over 30 years, the Dubois Cantata offers a moving way for people to conclude the season of Lent and connect with the Easter story during Holy Week.

“The Dubois Cantata is a powerful way for us to share the message of Easter through music,” said Pastor Stephanie Tollefson. “Whether you’re a lifelong churchgoer or new to Christ's love and sacrifice, this performance offers a chance to experience the Passion story in a meaningful, inspiring way.”

First Lutheran has been connecting people to God and each other as a congregation in the Fargo-Moorhead area for over 150 years. Beyond weekly worship services, the church offers programs for all ages, local and global mission opportunities, and community outreach.

Featuring First Lutheran’s Cathedral Choir, a 30-piece musician orchestra, organist Bill Tweten, and regional vocal soloists David Ferreira, Anthony Rohr, and Darci Bultema; conducted by Jane Linde-Capistran.

The Dubois Cantata will be held March 27 at 7 p.m. at First Lutheran Church, located at 619 Broadway N. in Fargo, ND. Admission is free will offering. For more information, call 701-235-7389 or visit www.flcfargo.org.
